

Announcement

Amman Security Colloquium - 12th Session

November 6-7, 2019

The Arab Institute of Security Studies proudly announces the 12th session of the Amman Security Colloquium due to take place in Amman during November 06-07, 2019. The event provides an important opportunity to engage with various leaders in the field of international security, disarmament and foreign affairs. The Amman Security Colloquium consists of the following tracks:

November 06, 2019

The Amman Security Colloquium is a high level event and one of the few annual gatherings dedicated to discussing emerging security challenges regionally and internationally. The event witnesses the participation of ministerial figures, military leaders, and representatives of foreign policy agencies, civil society, and international organizations.

November 07, 2019

The Nuclear Forum is the only specialized forum in the Arab world that promotes policy and public dialogue in nuclear, chemical and biological fields. The Nuclear Forum seeks to promote dialogue on non-conventional capabilities. It seeks to provide reliable and credible analysis on nuclear security, WMDs, CBRNS and delivery vehicles. The Nuclear Forum is accessible to policy-makers, researchers and academia from the Arab Region and beyond.

November 07, 2019

Small Arms Survey is a global centre of excellence focusing on small arms and armed violence issues. In parallel to the Amman Security Colloquium, Small Arms Survey is holding an information-sharing and capacity-development workshop for national experts in the MENA region. The workshop will focus on strengthening national implementation of UN arms embargoes: Participation in this workshop is open to interested participants (by invitation).

November 07, 2019

This is an advanced training session offered to students and young professionals. The training will be conducted by a team of ambassadors and international staff. Candidates undergoing this training will be exposed to issues relating to nuclear security, WMD/FZ, non-conventional capabilities, non-state actors .. etc.

How to register

Due to high demand, the program accepts participants on a competitive basis. Please apply through sending a letter of interest and a short biography to the following address:

المعهد العربي لدراسات الأمن
Arab Institute for Security Studies
Email: info@acsis.org